IMPORTANT NOTE: To listen to a 27 minute downloadable MP3 demo CD of this program covering: The Skeptical Marketplace... The Gaping Gap in Network Marketing... Shall We Agree? The Women and Cold Market— Openers... all from Disc 1 of Kim's new Skeptical Market Recruiter training program, go to Kim's feature article, Network marketing is a woman, in the December 2005 issue.

Readers of the magazine know my bias for all (most all) flavors of Klaver. I love Kim's stuff. She pragmatic. She thinks. And, she only offers what she has proven in the field where theories live and die in the bright light of results. Her brand new three-CD set and ready-to use scripts is another rubber-meets-the-road 'how to' you can put the key in and drive away down the highway of more success than you had before.

I used to be passionately (read fiercely) anti-scripts— for years. Kim finally changed my mind. Her stuff is rock-solid smart and easily incorporated into any 'truth-based' network marketing system. Check flashers and the 'throw 'em up against the wall and see who sticks crowd need NOT apply, because they couldn't use Kim's approach. It's too straight and honest, sans hype and hustle. Kim's on a mission and I'm with her. It's time. It really is time.

Kim asks:

Are you someone who loves your products and the business BUT:

- You can't get anyone good to listen to their business opportunity.
- You want to talk like a sincere, normal, non-hypey person, to both that big bananas and little banana.
- You don’t want to make promises you can’t keep anymore.
- You want a NEW WAY to talk to your warm market WITHOUT risking the relationship, period.

Then take a sincere and serious look at the Skeptical Market Recruiter.
