belief — the mental act, condition, or habit of placing trust or confidence in another. Mental acceptance of and conviction in the truth, actuality, or validity of something. Something believed or accepted as true, especially a particular tenet or a body of tenets accepted by a group of persons.

Your self-beliefs either support or undermine you.
— Marsha Sinetar

Belief is the knowledge that we can do something. It's the inner feeling that what we undertake, we can accomplish. For the most part, all of us have the ability to look at something and to know whether or not we can do it. So, in belief there is power; our eyes are opened; our opportunities become plain; our visions become realities.
— Wynn Davis

I believe that life is a journey, often difficult and sometimes incredibly cruel, but we are well equipped for it if only we tap into our talents and gifts and allow them to blossom.
— Les Brown

One person with a belief is equal to ninety-nine who have only interests.
