Vision – You MUST See Your Success Ahead of Time, In Order to Ever See It At All

Without a clearly defined destination, you've got nowhere to go.

If you're reading this, then it's very likely that you're someone who is trying to achieve success in network marketing and/or some other form of home business. I think that's fair to assume.

What also might be fair to assume is that you're not as successful as you'd like to be.

There can be a myriad of reasons for this, but there's one reason that usually trumps all others and that's lack of VISION.

You see, most people will jump into a situation like starting a home business, without ever taking the time to not only plan for success (which is critical to success) but to envision themselves obtaining that success.

"Cherish your visions and your dreams, as they are the children of your soul; the blueprints of your ultimate achievements." ~ Napoleon Hill

That quote from Napoleon Hill is extremely important to your pursuit of success with your home business. Especially the last five words "blueprints of your ultimate achievements". Success was this man's study for decades and in researching for his book "Think and Grow Rich" under Andrew Carnegie's encouragement, he interviewed and profiled over 500 successful men.

This simply means that Napoleon Hill is someone that you should probably listen to, and when he says "cherish your visions and dreams" then that means that they must be an extremely important part of success.

But, the problem is that most people go through life without any or with very minimal dreams. Most people dream very small, and their vision for themselves is quite the opposite of an "ultimate achievement" but rather a bland life of simply getting by.

If that's your vision for yourself and your future, then you're in the wrong business my friend. Starting your own business in any industry requires that you have huge visions for yourself. You must be continuously thinking about and focusing on your end goal.

You must create those goals, and plan them out as a blueprint, and then take the steps to follow that blueprint.

But perhaps the most important part of the whole equation is to SEE yourself everyday living your successful life. This is the VISION part of success, when you foresee your success within your mind. Doing this utilizes another important factor of success in Napoleon Hill's strategy called IMAGINATION!

"All the breaks you need in life wait within your imagination. Imagination is the workshop of your mind, capable of turning mind energy into accomplishment and wealth." ~ Napoleon Hill

Basically you need to utilize your imagination for your VISION. Your VISION is the catalyst for you to achieve your goals in life. Your goals are essential as a road map to get to where you want to go, and your blue print on how to get there.

But it's all lost without your VISION... which is your destination. Without a clearly defined destination, you've got nowhere to go.

> "It's been a looonnngg journey from their "weird" first exposure to network marketing where Ann— a Park Avenue Research Consultant, and David— the owner of an entertainment management firm handling the careers of rock stars such as (the early) Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, Michael Bolton, Cyndi Lauper, Phil Collins, and other famous others, found themselves at a meeting full of strange "new agers" from Sunrider— that was 21 years ago— to where they are today: Significant six-figure income earners with Agel Enterprises leading an organization of more than 65,000 people in 40+ countries around the world.

The first people they have their new people speak with are family and friends, they do meetings, build for and around events and David even unabashedly asks people, "Do you keep your business options open."*
> They meet new people through weblogs, electronic newsletters, Twitter and Facebook leveraging their time and global reach. The business is all about relationships and giving value for Ann & David Feinstein… and consistently building their brand."
