I made you a little video and want you to see it and see if I described you.

In the short video, you'll hear three confessions of countless of my students. Usually, they whisper when they tell me.

If that's who you are too, you'll absolutely 100% want to know the "three marketing laws" laid down by Apple's founder, Steve Jobs in 1997. He had come back to try and revive his beloved Apple, which was near death.

You will feel comforted.

Each law he laid down is the exact opposite of what the mlm industry teaches the new recruits.

The opposite. And more in line with the MLM whisperers I refer to.

The new Authority program gives a surprising solution, which you'll get a hint of at the end of the 7 minute video.
