LISTENING | SPEAKING AND LISTENING | LEADERSHIP

Who Are You Listening To?

Interested is interesting. The more the other person talks the better the chance of them hearing you, liking you and them becoming a part of your life and fabulous future.

by Jan Ruhe

509 words | 2 pages

Isn't it time to listen to your inner self, to that Champion that is yearning to come out of you? Why let someone who is negative, complaining, sarcastic, unkind, pessimistic, unsuccessful and someone who cannot hear you nor will listen to you hold you back?

No longer put up with ANYONE killing your dreams, your choices, decisions, attitudes, goals, desires, and go ahead and feel free to produce outrageous results. It's your turn to shine! Your destiny begins right now!

If you see yourself as a Champion and passionately want to get to the top, start working on your listening skills now. Don't delay. You have a major chance of saying goodbye to the old average life... by listening.

God gave us two ears and one mouth, do the math! Truly listen, do not interrupt. Be patient.

First key to success is to seek to understand what the other person values and speak to their values, not yours. That old saying of if you help enough people get what they want you will get everything you want? Well, I tried that philosophy for years.

What is better is if you can LISTEN to what others want and guide them how THEY can get it by working a home base business, then you have REALLY helped people, because they will get what they want and so much more.

Stay FIRED UP while you listen, stay engaged and keep asking questions every five declarative statements you make... and then what, and what happened next, so no kidding, how did it turn out?

Interested is interesting. The more the other person talks the better the chance of them hearing you, liking you and them becoming a part of your life and fabulous future. Go for greatness, prosperity and abundance are waiting for you. To your colossal success!

Jan Ruhe has been in Network Marketing for over 32 years, 30 in the same company where she made millions. She left that company in 2012 as a Legacy Diamond.

Jan has written 14 best sellers in the Network Marketing/Personal Growth field, has trained over 200,000 distributors around the world and is a legend in Network Marketing as she actually built a business from the ground up. She had over 80,000 in her network in the USA alone with 40 direct active leaders.

Jan became a millionaire in 1994 and has trained many distributors who have gone on to be millionaires in their own companies. Jan is the mother of 3 grown children and lives in Colorado and Florida with her husband Bill when they are not traveling the world. Jan is constantly booked speaking/training around the globe.
Her message to all is "Don't be average, be a champion."
http://www.janruhe.com/